Return Books Early

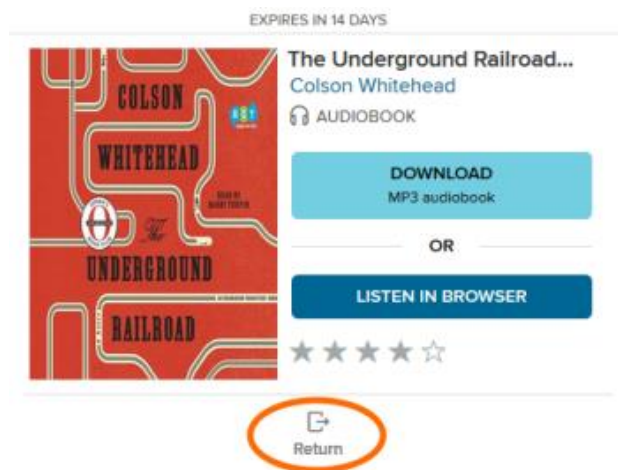

All digital titles are automatically returned to your library at the end of their lending periods, so you never have to worry about late fees. If you'd like to return a title early to make space in your library account, you may be able to do so using the sections below.

If you haven't downloaded or watched the title yet:

You can return a title from your Loans page (under  in the library's digital collection) if:

- You borrowed an eBook AND haven't selected Download (and chosen a format from the drop-down menu, if available) yet.
- You borrowed an audiobook AND haven't selected Download yet.

To return a title from your Loans page, select the Return button.

If you have already downloaded the title:

Once you download a title or add it to the OverDrive app, the Return button disappears from your Loans page. Instead, you'll see a How to return button that will explain how to return that title early (if it's possible).

1. From your app bookshelf, tap and hold a title to display its return options.

2. Select Return to library. The title will be returned to the library and deleted from your device.

Go to overdrive.com or the library's website at fondulaclibrary.org for additional information and troubleshooting.
